

D. E. Shaw Renewable Investments Announces Strategic Relationship with Alberta Investment Management Corporation

NEW YORK, NY, March 9, 2016—D. E. Shaw Renewable Investments, L.L.C. (“DESRI”) today announced that it has entered into a strategic financing relationship with Alberta Investment Management Corporation (“AIMCo”). Under the arrangement, AIMCo expects to provide DESRI up to US $500 million of capital to support DESRI acquisitions and growth. DESRI is focused on owning and managing long-term contracted renewable energy assets in North America and has a portfolio of projects totaling approximately 1,000 megawatts of capacity.

“We’ve gotten to know AIMCo over many years and have developed a great deal of respect and admiration for their team,” said Bryan Martin, managing director and Head of U.S. Private Equity at the D. E. Shaw group. “We are excited to partner with AIMCo as we further expand DESRI’s renewables business into new markets.”

“We believe DESRI and AIMCo have a similar long-term perspective, and we look forward to building on our relationship with the DESRI management team to support their efforts to execute on their pipeline of attractive opportunities and grow the DESRI platform of contracted solar and wind projects in the U.S.,” said Ben Hawkins, Senior Vice President, Infrastructure & Timber, AIMCo.
